Credit Application

Important Information to Applicant(s). To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who applies for a loan or opens an account. What this means for you. When you apply for a loan or open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. In some instances, we may use outside sources to confirm the information. The information you provide is protected by our privacy policy and federal law. Read each instruction carefully before completing this form.

California Residents. Each applicant, if married, may apply for a separate account.

Applicant Signature

New York Residents. A consumer report may be ordered in connection with your application. Upon your request, we will inform you whether or not a report was ordered. If a report was ordered, we will tell you the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that provided the report. Subsequent reports may be ordered or utilized in connection with an update, renewal or extension of credit for which you have applied.

Ohio Residents. The Ohio laws against discrimination require all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Any person who, with intent to defraud or knowing that he is facilitating a fraud against an insurer, submits an application or files a claim containing a false or deceptive statement is guilty of insurance fraud.

Texas Residents. The owner of the homestead is not required to apply the proceeds of the extension of credit to repay another debt except debt secured by the homestead or debt to another lender.

Wisconsin Residents. Notice to Married Applicants. No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement under Wisc. Statutes § 766.59 or a court decree under Wisc. Statutes § 766.70 adversely affects the interests of the Creditor unless the Creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the Creditor is incurred.

For Married Wisconsin Residents. The credit being applied for, if granted, will be incurred in the interest of my marriage or family. I understand the Creditor may be required by law to give notice of this transaction to my spouse.

5. Certifications, Authorizations and Signatures

Each of the parties signing below (the "Undersigned") certifies that everything stated in this Credit Application and on any other documents submitted to the Creditor are true and complete. The Undersigned understands that we will retain this Credit Application whether or not it is approved.

The Undersigned hereby give their prior express consent to the Creditor, its affiliates, successors, assignees, agents and service providers to contact you using 1) any of the telephone numbers listed on this Credit Application, or 2) that you subsequently provide us, regardless whether the number we use is assigned to a paging service, cellular telephone service, specialized mobile radio service, other radio common carrier service or any other service for which you may be charged for the call, or 3) any number. You further authorize us to contact you through the use of voice, text and email and through the use of prerecorded/artificial voice messages or an automatic dialing device.

The Undersigned each consent and specifically authorize the Creditor, as it may deem necessary or desirable, to forward any documentation and information which the Creditor now has or may hereafter acquire in connection with any transaction between any of the Undersigned and the Creditor to any potential investor, rating agency, and any other party involved in the sale, transfer, assignment, securitization, or participation transaction involving any credit granted to the Undersigned.

The Undersigned authorize the Creditor to request one or more consumer reports, to check and verify your credit and employment history, and to answer questions others may ask us about our credit experience with you.

Notice: It is a federal crime punishable by fine, imprisonment, or both, to knowingly make any false statements concerning any of the above facts as applicable under the provisions of Title 18, United States Code § 1001, et seq.
